THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

FIRST THAT
Customers can always rely on our goods, place the most important confidence in our goods, place the most important confidence in our goods.

SECOND THAT
No matter which way the money goes, people can buy from us just the same. We've got something for everybody to want for every minute in the twenty-four hours.

THIRD THAT
We can do nothing unnatural or impossible. We can't put a cork so as to resemble a rock that it'll sink to the bottom if cast into a stream; but

FOURTH THAT
We are selling all kinds of Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods at prices which we guarantee are the lowest in this or any other city in the Union.

FIFTH THAT
Think the above argument should convince every man, woman and child that the place to buy Boots and Shoes is from FERRISS & LAPHAM, 148 East Main Street, the Decatur branch of the big Wholesale House of L. L. Ferriss & Co., Chicago.

An anonymous letter was received at this office today, containing some scurrilous remarks about a Republican reporter, and closing up with the words "refutation," "now as if you have got enough to print this." The fellow who wrote the letter, however, had not finished enough to sign his name to his scrawl, and it is well for him that he did not. DEATH OF ELEAZER HOUSE.

The Final Summons Comes to a Well-Known Blue Mound Citizen.

The news reached the city today of the death of Eleazer House, a prominent farmer and highly esteemed citizen of Pleasant View township, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock this forenoon at his home near Blue Mound, in the 68th year of his age. He had been ill several months and his death was not unexpected. He leaves three children—Samuel, James and Dora. He was a widower, his second wife having died in 1840. He had lived on his home place near Blue Mound for nearly 30 years, and had held many positions of public trust in the township and village. Politically he was a Democrat of the Jeffersonian school.

Eleazer House was born in Jefferson county, Ohio, July 27, 1822, and his father, John House, served in the war of 1812. In 1851 the deceased married Nancy E. Prizer, who died in 1855, leaving two children, one of whom, Samuel, now resides in Pleasant View township. He married Flora A. Martin, his second wife, and within five years she died, leaving two children, a son and daughter, who reside at Blue Mound. Mr. House was the owner of a stock farm of 160 acres, one mile north of Blue Mound in section 31, township 15, range 1 east. He bought the farm in 1845. He had made first-class improvements and had a beautiful home. He was a public spirited citizen, and did his part in the management of public affairs honestly and well. He served eight or nine years as a supervisor near Pleasant View township, and had also served as clerk and collector with general acceptability.

The funeral will take place on Thursday and will be conducted by the Methodist ministry.

Decatur Township S. S. Convention.
The Decatur Township Sunday School Convention will be held to-morrow at the Presbyterian church. The subjects, "How shall I prepare to teach," "Primary Work" and "Are teachers meetings profitable," will be discussed. Afternoon session opens at 2 o'clock and evening session at 7:30 o'clock.

The District Lodge.
The District Lodge of Good Templars will close its meetings to-night with a sociable, to which all are invited. There was a large representation of working Good Templars and a profitable routine session, was held.

The following officers were elected today: District Lodge, J. H. Taylor, of Forsyth, District Commander; D. L. Bunn, of Decatur, Sept. of Juvenile Templars; Miss Mattie Ray-burn, of Asotin.

Vice Temples: Ruth Coleman, of Decatur; Secretary: C. C. Coleman, of Decatur; Treasurer: Chas. Coleman, of Decatur; Delegate to Grand Lodge: E. M. Mullen, of Tuscumbia.

Milklin Place.
On our fourth page will be found the plot of this elegant addition of lots just put upon the market. Of the two blocks embraced in the plot, that portion fronting on William street was all sold before the plot was made, and of the 37 lots on North and Elberado streets 18 have been sold already, although the agents have only been prepared to make deals since Monday night, when the council accepted the plot. So that parties who want to acquire these lots would do well to be up and moving, for it will not take long to use up the remaining 19 lots. It is needless to speak of the advantages of these lots, their convenience of access, etc. Everybody knows that already, and Messrs. Pritchett & Walmsley, who are brokers of the first class, will find the lots going off in a hurry.

Got Wheat to Sell.
Last fall when Milton Clark, of Long Creek township, where he owns 200 acres of land, came back from the National G. A. R. encampment, he thought he would sow 11 acres in wheat, just to get enough to keep his family in bread for the winter of '89, but now he has wheat to sell. The 11 acres and 107 rods produced 507 bushels of wheat, or 43 bushels to the acre. Mr. Clark says this is the heaviest yield he ever got on his farm, and he has been farming since 1876.

An August Night Ball.
The courteous members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians gave their first annual ball at Thurst's Armory last night, and that it was a success was attested by the remarkably large attendance for such a hot night and by the zest with which all entered into the enjoyment of the affair. The Opera House Orchestra furnished the inspiration for the 100 couples, with L. W. Friberg as promotor, and James Veale and Mrs. Peter Perl led the grand march. Over 150 tickets were received at the door. The handsome program was 25 dances. Lennons was sold in the hall, and those who wanted refreshments were supplied at the restaurant. The clever members of the different committees were Mark Moran, John McEvoy, John Giblin, Thomas Clark, James Veale, Patrick Moran, John Leavens, Morris Powers, John Dugan, Dennis Murray, James Moran, Wm. O'Hara, James Townsend, Will Jones, Martin O'Hara, James Keating and Ed. Bowen. Mr. Veale was the chief floor manager.

Capt. Frank Wells, of the Decatur Guards, is in the line for Major of the Fifth Regiment at Camp Lincoln. His election to be held on Saturday morning. City Attorney McDonald, who was in Springfield, visited Camp Lincoln last evening, and was the guest of Col. H. He saw the regimental dress parade, which was the finest military display he ever witnessed.

Another Close Call.

A lad named Bennett undertook to light up the hall of No. 364 for the meeting of the District Lodge of Good Templars, last night, and he had bad luck. The Lodge some months ago shut off the gas as the bills were too exorbitant for them. Instead they use gasoline lamps of different shapes and sizes. They are hard for a man to manage, let alone a boy. The boy was doing the best he knew how, when one lamp fell over on the floor, and set the carpet on fire. Sobbing with fright the boy hurried down two flights of stairs and got Harry Fisk, Jr., of the furniture store, to battle with the gathering conflagration. There were pitchers of water handy and with the water and stamping process Harry soon had the fire under control. Had he been a few moments later, it would have taken hard work for the fire department to have checked the flames without considerable loss. Better turn on the gas. It is safer. This is the second or third accident from the lamps in that hall. The damage was mostly to the carpet which will have to be repaired.

To Monticello.
A number of Decatur people left this morning for Monticello, where the fair is in session. Those who left Decatur are Mrs. O. Ewing and son, Percy, Mrs. E. H. Piper, Ed. Hill, Harry Ehrmann, Miss Anna Henkle, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Steele, Miss Elsie Daltiel, Miss Marie Traver, Harry Starr and Harry Dills.

CONSIGNEE TO THE GRAVE.
Funeral of the late Mrs. S. S. Jack. Burial in Greenwood.

The mortal remains of Mrs. Josephine Jack, beloved wife of Postmaster S. S. Jack, were consigned to the narrow home of clay in Greenwood Cemetery last evening in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends who gathered in the city of the dead to witness the last duty that in time is to be performed to all of earth until the last great day when time shall be no more.

The funeral services were held at the family residence, No. 151 West Main street, beginning at 4 o'clock. The dwelling was filled with friends and scores occupied the lawn, as they were unable to find room in the house. Rev. W. H. Priestley conducted the obsequies. The choir comprised Misses Lizzie Knicker and Clara Eymann, A. B. Alexander and Charles W. Montgomery, and the selections were "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Some Sweet Day, Bye and Bye," and "Jesus as Thou Wilt." There was a great profusion of beautiful floral offerings, many of costly and elaborate design, the rich carpet being almost hidden by the flowers. Rev. Priestley selected for his text the 11th verse of the 14th Psalm: "Thou wilt show me the path of life, in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore." The conclusion of the thoughtful and beautiful sermon was that the deceased, who had long been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, had walked in the path of the true Christian, and that she was in the full enjoyment of the blessing of those who die in the Lord.

A long cortege followed the remains to the cemetery, comprising 11 carriages and buggies filled with friends. The post-office clerk and carrier force attended in a body, serving as an escort, with Col. Gen. W. Patterson, deputy postmaster, in charge. The pallbearers were D. H. Uellman, Charles A. Ewing, W. H. Starr, I. A. Buckingham, L. D. Walker and J. F. May.

The Walbach.
Amos Baker, the Walbach ticket agent at the Union depot, reports business in a very flourishing condition. He says the Walbach carried twelve hundred harvest accommodations on the trains leaving Decatur yesterday for points on the west. Sixty-five tickets were sold at the Decatur office and the "bummer ball" alone carried four hundred. The agents were kept so busy that they were unable to note down the names of the parties leaving Decatur. Mr. Baker is assisted in the office by Charles Hughes.

The Institute teachers had a pleasant time at the High School building last night, and heard a valuable lecture delivered by Prof. Holloway.

Through street intersections of the paved thoroughfare from Prairie north on Church to Eldorado are now open to the passage of vehicles and the patient people give thanks.

State Meeting.
Gen. G. W. Parry, president of the Illinois Association of Ex-Prisoners of War, has announced October 16 and 17 as the time and Springfield as the place, for holding the next annual reunion.

Base Ball.
There will be a game of base ball to-day at Macon between the home club and the Macon nine. Bain Walston will nab the curves for the Macon club and Bob Hays will play first for the Macon nine.

This morning Anderson Bradley hitched his buggy horse to a telephone post, east side of South Water street, and in a few moments the horse came near choking itself to death by slipping down on the foolishly constructed brick curb, which is the cause of many similar accidents. A number of men extorted the straggling horse from his position. It occupied with a number of severe cuts. The curbing ought to be torn out and built in a sensible way to avoid future mishaps.

DIED.
At 10 p. m., of congestion of the stomach, Mrs. Salista Barlow, wife of John Barlow, deceased, leaves a husband and two children, Mrs. Little Norman, of Sullivan, and John Barlow, Jr.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 2 a. m., Thursday, Rev. G. R. Sterling, of Stapp's Chapel, officiating.

This morning Mrs. Phil Robinson had her husband arrested on a peace warrant. The case is set for trial in Justice Curtis' court to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Robinson was released on $100 bond, with O. W. Kincaid as security.

The Gravel Road.

Commissioners Maffit and Allen spent yesterday in Paris, investigating the system of gravelled roads now being built by the commissioners of highways. The system of paying for the roads differs somewhat from ours, the people voting in favor of the roads and authorizing the levy of a tax to pay for them. Mr. Allen informs us that the gravel used is no better than ours, and in some instances has to be hauled five miles from the bank, which is owned by the township. Some of the roads have been in use five or six years, and are in good condition, and promise to remain so for a long time to come.

R. R. Montgomery and F. R. Shalt to Mary B. R. Shalt, 1/2 and 1/2 block 1, Montgomery & Shalt's first addition, $100.

The Last Day.
This is the last day of the Illinois Holiness Camp Meeting at Oakland Park. Yesterday afternoon the services were in the nature of a ministerial experience meeting. Rev. J. A. Wood delivered a sermon at night. This morning Rev. L. R. Kent occupied the platform. Rev. J. P. Taylor will speak this afternoon, and to-night Rev. Joseph H. Smith will give his experience. The National Holiness meeting may be held in Decatur next year. The results of the present meeting have been most satisfactory.

Mr. Bartholomew will arrive home soon, when, of course, he will be able to tell all about life in Paris and London.

William M. Dasey, Decatur and Bloomington agent for the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association, of New York, has received notice from President Harper that he has notified the European agents of the association to pay Mrs. Maybrick the American woman convicted of poisoning her husband, a verdict of $10,000. Mr. Maybrick had a policy in the Reserve Association for $25,000, of which amount $10,000 was to go to his wife in case of his untimely death, and $15,000 to his brothers. Mr. Harper gave the order before any proof had been submitted of Mrs. Maybrick's guilt, and the $10,000 was used to pay the wife's fees to defend herself at the celebrated trial. It was a commendable, humane act on the part of President Harper, whose entire has been fully sustained by the directors.
